We are pleased to offer for sale this spacious and well-located property, just minutes from the town centre, combining comfortable living with the convenience of nearby amenities. Recently redecorated throughout and featuring newly updated interior lighting, the home feels fresh, bright, and ready to move into. Spread across three levels, the property offers excellent space and versatility. On the lower floor, a large garage provides parking for at least two vehicles along with generous storage space, all connected to the main living areas via an internal staircase. On the main floor, a spacious living room opens into a modern American-style kitchen, creating an open and welcoming environment. A sliding door leads to a small rear patio — perfect for enjoying a quiet moment outdoors. This level also includes a double bedroom and a bathroom with a shower, offering comfort and practicality for guests or for those who prefer single-level living. Upstairs, you will find two additional double bedrooms, each with its own private balcony. One side enjoys views towards the town and the ...
